made a beautiful dressing table out of an old square piano case and an odd piece of wood. The Ladies' Home Journal ought to send a correspondent to Topeka to get material for one of these stories about How We Built Our Home out of Kindling Wood or Putting Up a Front on a Small Salary.

Mr. Herman Springer, baritone of Kansas City gave a Schumann song recital this afternoon at the George W. Parkhurst residence, which was one of the most delightful musical events of the season. Mrs. Robert Garver played Mr. Springer's accompaniments and among the numbers were "The Elver Lief", cycle, the Two Grenadiers, Moonlight, Some One, No One, Fruhlingsnacht, Du Bist Wie Eine Blume and others.

Miss Mary Meade gave a luncheon today for Miss Jessie Payne. Her guests included Miss Payne, Mrs. William Wikidal, Mrs. Solomon of Atchison, Miss Rella Updegraff and Miss Alice Laktn.

Mr. and Mrs. De M. Vane will give a family dinner Thanksgiving day.

The R. A. M. S., an organization of the high school, gave a banquet last night at the home of Mr. Roy Cope and Mr. Ray Cope for the girls' organization, the M. U. M. S. The program followed in the class colors, green and white with chrysanthemums and smilax, and the menu and place cards were in green and white. The program was given by Mr. Charles Metzger, acted as toast master and the other after dinner speakers were Mr. Luther Coblentz, Mr. George Wilbur and Miss Margaret Wellcome. Following the dinner a playlet, "The Rowery Night School," was presented by Mr. Fred Gilguly, Mr. Ernest Blene, Mr. Theo. Zercher, Mr. Bonebrake, Mr. Roy Cope, Mr. Earl Brown, Mr. Luther Coblentz and Mr. The entertainment was the most elaborate and successful which the class has enjoyed and establishes a standard for high school entertainments.

Some of the active members of the Lambda frat of the high school will give an informal dance at the Country club tonight.

The annual discussion is being carried on in the majority of the homes over the subject of the Thanksgiving dinner. The cook and the women of the house want it at noon—so as to get it over with, which is a woman's idea of the principle of the matter. The men and boys want it at night so it won't conflict with the football game, not being willing to miss any of either, which is almost necessary if the dinner is served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Overmyer will give a family dinner party Thanksgiving Day.

A professional visiting girl is headed this way and her friends in Topeka are thinking up excuses for not entertaining her when she writes telling them she is anxious to spend a few days with them.

The Central Park Chautauqua will meet next Tuesday evening with Mrs. Martindale, 1232 Polk street.

A man whose habits and record entitle him to be classed among the confirmed bachelors revives an old discussion every time he favors a girl with his attentions. There are a lot of sort in town now and the people who don't care anything about it, one way or another, are being bored to death by the people who care about everything that is none of their business and who bring up the subject on every occasion who asked questions like: "Do you suppose he is serious?" and "Have you any idea that he means to marry her?"

Miss Isabel Dickinson gave a card party Friday evening at her home, Sixth and Lincoln streets, to celebrate her fourteenth birthday anniversary. ## CARUSO IS PAROLED.

SMOKE

KLAUER'S GOLD BUG

His Fine Is Unpaid and He Will File an Appeal.

New York, Nov. 24.—The ten dollar fine imposed upon Enrico Caruso, the famous Italian opera singer, today by the Yorkville police court yesterday after he had been declared guilty of annoying women in the monkey house at Central park, was not paid today. One of his attorneys had come to court with the intention of paying the fine under protest and the money was about to be passed across the clerk's desk when Caruso's senior counsel rushed into the court room and brought the proceedings to a halt. A consultation between the counsel and the court followed and it was agreed to permit the matter to go over until Monday. In the meantime Caruso has been paroled in the custody of his counsel.

Caruso's counsel today reiterated the announcement made yesterday that an appeal would be taken.

"I saw Mr. Caruso at his hotel today," said the attorney, "and had him sign an application for an appeal, which will be argued for immediately of one of the judges of the court of general sessions. It is for one of them to sign the paper and allow or disallow the application for an appeal."

Mr. Caruso continued the lawyer, "that Magistrate Baker had treated him very fairly during the hearing and that his character was being fully vindicated. It was more than a surprise to him when he heard that the court found him guilty. The shock was most terrible to Caruso, who is a highly sensitive man, particularly as he had firmly believed the testimony clearly exonerated him."

Dissatisfaction was also expressed by the attorney with the manner in which Deputy Police Commissioner Matthot had insisted on the identification of evidence without a full transcript of the trial and was not proper matter to come before the court and which, he said, was introduced for theatrical effect and to prejudice the public against the defendant.

It is said that the appeal will be argued next Monday. Caruso's counsel asked for a full transcript of the police court proceedings for use in connection with the appeal.

Salina Man's Long Voyage.

Kings Hunt Wild Boars.

Rome, Nov. 24.—King George of Greece and King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by their suites, were driven in automobiles to the castle of Portofino, the royal preserves situated in the beautiful pine woods near Ostia, which extends to the Mediterranean. Their majesties visited the spot where, according to classical legend, Aeneas the Trojan prince founded the city of Lavinium. After taking part in a successful wild boar hunt, the two kings lunched at the royal hunting lodge and then returned to Rome.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free.
